SYMPOSIUM REINVIGORATES TE REO CHAMPIONS

“It’s a fact it takes one generation to lose a language and at least three to get it back,” says Rangitāne Pou Arataki Ahurea, Jeremy MacLeod.

“We know that Te Taihū is one of the regions that suffered huge Māori language losses but we should be very encouraged with events like this and the tribes across Te Taihū all embarking on language revitalisation journeys,” said MacLeod.

That’s the message presented to a sold-out audience of 450 people at Te Kaiaotanga o te Reo, the first Māori language revitalisation symposium held in Te Taihū. The symposium was a collaboration with Rangitāne o Wairau and Ngāti Apa ki te Rā Tō and funded by Te Matawai.

Keynote speaker Tā Timoti Kāretu said in his wisdom “revitalising our Reo Māori will require hunger, commitment and demand time, but it’s not impossible”.

Hēmi Kelly, lecturer from the University of Auckland shared his tips for people ready to undertake the learning journey also for more advanced reo speakers, and those in a position in communities and whānau where they are encouraging others to learn as well.

“Revitalising te Reo Māori in a region with no native speakers starts with individual whānau”, says Kiley Nēpia, Pou Ahurea (Cultural Advisor) Ngāti Apa ki te Rā Tō.

“Language, culture, identity, they’re all linked together, and we want our tamariki to have a better tomorrow than we had,” Nēpia said.

The event is an opportunity for the community and te Reo Māori champions to learn from each other, and understand what was needed to continue revitalising te Reo Māori.

Celebrating the poetic language of te Reo Māori is to celebrate what makes Aotearoa unique.

WHĀNAU HĪKOI

Peter Meihana led us on a whānau hīkoi where we visited Rangitāne House, Rahoia Pou, Huataki Pou, Te Taihu o Te Waka-a-Māui, Ōpaoa Pou “Kei Puta Te Wairau” and the Seventeen Valley Pou (Te Hau & Kupe). At each site, Peter shared kōrero on why they are significant to Rangitāne o Wairau. Our patron and kaumātua, Uncle Taane, also shared stories on whakapapa and enjoyed listening to the kōrero with whānau. It was great to have him join the trip.

MIHI WHAKATAU

A big mihi to our cousin, Rangitāne o Wairau Trustee Amelia Taylor on her new role as the Unborn/Newborn Whānau Ora Navigator for Maataa Waka Ki Te Tau Ihu Trust. We were pleased to attend her mihi whakatau and to awhi her into her new role. Amelia has whakapapa connections to Rangitāne through her maternal great grandmother, Heeni Te Mete (Jane Smith). All the best in your new role Amelia!

2021 AGM WEEKEND

This year's AGM date has been set for Saturday 2 October and will be held at Ūkaipō, Grovetown.

The AGM weekend will include mihi whakatau on Friday night for those travelling home for the hui. We'd like to encourage our Te Taihu whānau to come along and manaaki our whanaunga and stay for a kai and catch up. Saturday evening we'll be having hākari at the Clubs of Marlborough for our adult members. For the duration of the AGM hui, activities have been arranged to keep our tamariki entertained at Grovetown School (tamariki aged 4yrs and under must be accompanied by an adult).

For whānau who are unable to travel or attend in person, you will be able to watch live online. There will be a registration process to access the live stream link.

Travel assistance will be available to registered iwi members aged 18 and over this year. Limited accommodation will be available at Ūkaipō and motel accommodation will only be offered to kaumātua that require extra care. We will have more details on live stream access, travel and accommodation leading up to the event.

QUEEN'S HONOUR

We wish to extend congratulations to our cousin Gina, on a well deserved Queen's Birthday Honour for her services to conservation and governance, applying her “kaitiaki lens” for more than a dozen groups and agencies over two decades. Gina, pictured here with her mum, the late Aunty Darcia Solomon (nee Mason), is the granddaughter of Kumeroa Mason (Ngāti Kuia) and great granddaughter of Granny Jane Smith (Rangitāne). Ka mau te wehi!

Whānau visited the urupā at Hokio Beach, Papakiri and Pua-o-tau (Koputaroa) during our Wānanga Ahurea ki Horowhenua. It was a great opportunity to visit the resting place of several Rangitāne ancestors and also visit the places where they lived.

Our next Wānanga Ahurea is being held at Bethell's Beach in Tamaki-Makaurau on Saturday and Sunday, 7-8 August. If you and your whānau would like to attend please contact our office or email events@rangitane.org.nz.

KAUMĀTUA HOUSIE

In May, we teamed up with Ngāti Apa ki te Rā Tō to host a Kaumātua Housie afternoon.

It was a great opportunity for our kaumātua to come together and enjoy an afternoon of whakawhanaungatanga and some friendly competition. Ngā mihi nui Nan Kahu Chadwick, Nan was our housie caller on the day and kept our kaumātua entertained.

MĀORI WARDS

Rangitāne o Wairau welcomed and commended the Marlborough District Council and Nelson City Council decision to establish a Māori wards.

Rangitāne o Wairau General Manager Corey Heberd said "the decision represents a commitment by Councils to ensure iwi Māori representation at the Council table is on the same terms as other councillors.

"The decision to establish a Māori ward is a start and an advancement on the status quo — and whilst it doesn't represent true partnership, we are heartened by the move in this direction.

"The addition of a Māori ward in Nelson and Marlborough will bring more diversity and better outcomes for Māori and indeed, the entire community."

LONG TERM PLAN

We presented to the full Marlborough District Council as part of their Long Term Plan process. Our submission highlighted some key challenges and opportunities, including: Iwi Capability Funding; A Māori Cultural Initiatives Fund; Iwi Mapping; Blenheim Sewerage Treatment Plant; Resolving misspelt Māori street names; Sedimentation in the Marlborough Sounds.
